CONCEPTUAL PHOTOGRAPHY & VISUAL ARTS ENGAGEMENT

I research, write about, and offer courses on the relationship between literature and various kinds of photographic practice. In addition to being a scholar, I am a conceptual photographer who produces photo-text work as Camera Query, both solo and in collaboration with colleagues and friends. As both Camera Query and previously as part of SPIR: Conceptual Photography, I have shown photographic work in the Carrack Gallery of Modern Art, Pleiades Gallery, and the Golden Belt Art Studios in Durham, North Carolina, 523 East Franklin Street in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, the Orange County Historical Museum in Hillsborough, North Carolina, the Joyner Library at East Carolina University in Greenville, North Carolina, Salisbury University Art Gallery in Salisbury, Maryland, the Institute of Contemporary Art in Boston, the Watershed Media Centre in Bristol, England, Pulse Art Gallery in New York City, the Center for Exploratory and Perceptual Art (CEPA Gallery) in Buffalo, New York, and El Progreso Gallery in Madrid, Spain. I have produced more than 400 new photographic images since July 2017. At the moment, I have been concentrating on publishing this new photographic work in literary and visual culture journals, as part of photo-text essays but also as cover art and insert images.

MUSIC COMPOSER

I compose music, sometimes write lyrics, and design sound. I have posted 44 of these compositions to my Soundcloud website. To access them, go to:

<https://soundcloud.com/mariadeguzman>

I have had approximately 80,000 plays in the last 8 years.
